

600 S. Federal St.

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

ABOUT

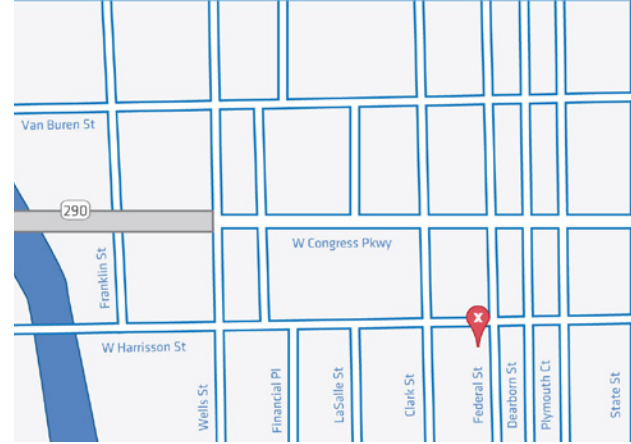

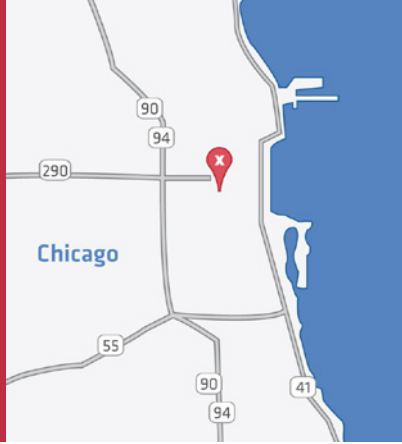

Looking to connect with customers in the Midwest? Digital Realty provides industry-leading interconnection and colocation services from its CHI2 (600 S. Federal St.) location in downtown Chicago. Located just south of Chicago's "Loop" – home to many leading businesses, financial firms and exchanges, CHI2 provides access to leading domestic and international carriers, as well as the physical connection points of global telecommunications networks and Internet backbones.

Like other Digital Realty colocation centers, this facility offers premier conditioned space as well as access control and state-of-the-art surveillance systems. All Digital Realty installations comply with or exceed the International Telecommunication Union (ITU) industry standards. Digital Realty is the operator of the interconnection area at the building.
